

November Camping Trip Scouting Skills Competition

November 16th, 17th, 18st

Depart Friday night the 16th of November from the church at 6:00pm

Returning Sunday afternoon at about 1pm November 18th

Cooking will be by Patrols

Cost $8.00

This camping trip will test the scouting skills of our troop and another troop in South Windsor at JN Webster BSA camp. There will be several events during Saturday where each troop will send members to compete in cooking, orienteering, knots, first aid and survival skills. On Sunday, we will have breakfast and awards ceremony.

We will depart from the church parking lot Friday night at 6:30 pm. Make sure you have eaten dinner on Friday before we leave. Saturday morning we will be up early, eat breakfast and the competition will begin and will continue into the night.

All cooking on this trip will be by Patrol, these patrols will be determine prior the trip and an e-mail will be sent to each scout attending this trip.

The weather can be cold so scouts will need to be prepared for the possible cold conditions.
