

Troop 880 Winter-fest 2009

Troop 880 will be going to Camp Sequassen Boy Scout Camp in New Hartford, Connecticut the weekend of Feb. 28TH through March 1st. The Senior Patrol will be leaving Friday evening the 27th at 5:30pm from the Church. All other Scouts will be going up Saturday morning leaving the church at 8:30 am and returning Sunday the 1th at about 10:30 am. Once everyone has arrived at camp and is settled in, we will work on our winter camping skills as well as sliding, ice fishing, ice skating (providing there is ice) and other advancement requirements. We will be staying in a heated cabin with power that will accommodate 24 people, that is the first 24 people to sign up. The others will enjoy Saturday Night Game Night and then retire outside to their snow cave or tent to earn the polar bear badge. The infamous Saturday Night Game night will start promptly after dinner. Saturday Lunch and Sunday Breakfast will be provided by the Troop. The Saturday night dinner will be Patrol cooking. Each Patrol will be responsible for cooking their own dinner Saturday night. If you have any questions please call Mr. Maneeley at 1-860-882-3111. You can mail your permission slip to Craig Maneeley, 326 Quarry brook Drive, South Windsor, Ct. 06074.
